It is unlawful under export laws and regulations to send or take export controlled information out of the United States or to disclose, orally or visually, or to transfer export controlled information to foreign nationals inside or outside the United States. A "foreign person" is one who is not a U.S. citizen or permanent resident alien of the U.S.

Researchers may be personally liable for violations of export control laws and regulations; therefore it is important that you use reasonable care in responding to the questions provided below. Prior to responding, you will need to review the general overview of your obligations under export laws and regulations and descriptions of technologies that are controlled by the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR) 22 CFR Section 121.1 et seq., accessible at http://pmdtc.state.gov/docs/ITAR/2007/official_itar/ITAR_Part_121.pdf and/or the Export Administration Regulations (EAR) 15 CFR Section 774, Supp. 1, (Categories 0-9) accessible at http://www.access.gpo.gov/bis/ear/ear_data.html and decide if you believe the technology involved in this particular project falls within one or more of the categories. There are a number of legal exceptions and exclusions under ITAR and EAR that may apply to certain research activities. However, it is important that we identify whether such activities are subject to ITAR or EAR as a threshold matter.

6. Indicate your determination with regard to whether the volunteer's activities include technology subject to the ITAR or EAR.

- The project does not involve technologies covered by ITAR or EAR.
- The project/technology is covered by either ITAR or EAR. If so, indicate the relevant category information:

7. In the space provided, describe any specialized equipment that the volunteer will use or have regular access to (Use of equipment may be controlled for export purposes if such use extends beyond routine operation). If you need additional space, attach a separate sheet of paper.

8. Is there an existing agreement, such as an exchange agreement, that governs the relationship between GSU and the volunteer's home entity?

- Yes. Please attach a copy to this form.
- No.

9. Are there any other sensitive issues or concerns that Legal Affairs should know about? Please provide below or call Legal Affairs at 3-0500.
